By Arthur Brisbane

AFTER A GREAT WAR, important changes occur in government and social systems.
One hundred and sixteen bankers and manufacturers inspire Great Britain to stick to and maintain free trade, and not be stampeded into protection or retaliation.
Another group of bankers had urged free trade within the Empire, protection against outside competition.
Dr. Butler of Columbia University, worrying about Russian experiments in government, which shows that he is an intelligent conservative, says this country should show "tolerance for Russia's colonial experiment."
Russia will go ahead whether we are tolerant or intolerant.

A new social concept is needed to meet the challenge and menace of Russia, says Dr. Butler, "humanity must now reconsider fundamental social duties."
If Russia has forced the conclusion on the world she has done a great deal.

To change our ideas of government sufficiently to meet the "Soviet challenge" would require a complete change.
Russia and those that govern Russia with him, seek to give everything possible to those who do the work.
Here, as everybody knows, the man in power give those that do the work as much as will keep them working. The real effort of those that govern is to increase their own gigantic fortunes and thus increase their power.

There is an element working against Russia's "colonial experiment" that Dr. Butler for the moment ignores, and that is human selfishness.
Revolutionists begin by working for the masses, and end by accumulating wealth and power for themselves.
Republicans are already predicting loss of seats in the House and Senate. The vote will be cast about the prosperity slump.

Whether J. A. Ryan, of Catholic University, does not say, the revolutionaries, at the moment, are not working for the masses, but for the masses who are working for the masses.
The "Soviet challenge" is a challenge to the masses, and the masses are working for the masses.

It is as interesting to read as any sermon as possible on Monday, having listened to at least one on Sunday.
In one Sunday's preaching these suggestions are offered:
To make profit your ideal is perdition.
Millions out of work prove that our social plan is a failure.
The golden rule would remedy the trouble.
Labor should be happy, "the song has been taken from the workers' lips."
The worker is getting more money now than he ever did. Perhaps it is his automobile installment that takes the song from his lips.

The "spiritual racketeer" with "only contempt for the Bible" worries one clergyman.
Another suggests that society be rebuilt on "plans and specifications of Jesus the carpenter."
A clergyman from Australia, the Rev. Dr. Morris, says the "life of the spirit" would give us everything we need.

GOLD AND TREASURE, the words that excite nearly all men.
Italian divers clad in iron, going down 400 feet to the bottom of the Atlantic, and coming up as swiftly as elevators in our skyscrapers, have discovered the British treasure ship Egypt with $5,000,000 of gold and silver in her hold, lying on the gray sand on the ocean floor.
No difficulty in persuading Italian divers to go down, they would go to the bottom if Mussolini ordered it. They could get there.

A small earthquake is felt in Tennessee, buildings rocked in Maryland and Rockwell, and harm done. And eastern newspapers treat it as a small earthquake.
If that little quake had occurred on the Pacific Coast, eastern newspapers would have made it conspicuous and serious not through measure, but because of foolishness.
Chicago has a new racket. Three hundred top golf courses are informed that they must come across or be made unusable for ambitious golfers.

Hearst Expose of Secret Treaty Is Reason of Ouster

Paris, Sept. 2 (INS)—The Paris newspapers today announced that William Randolph Hearst had left Paris yesterday for London as the result of a foreign office request that he leave French soil.

America Saved France Once, I Will Save It Again by Leaving, Mr. Hearst's Retort to Officials

London, Sept. 2 (INS)—William Randolph Hearst issued the following statement here today:
"I have no complaint to make. The officials were extremely polite. They said I was an enemy of France and a danger in their midst. They made me feel quite important. They said I could stay in France a little while longer if I desired, that they would take a chance on nothing disastrous happening to the republic."

"WILLING TO SAVE FRANCE AGAIN"

"But I told them that I did not want to take the responsibility of endangering the great French nation; that America had saved it once during the war, and I would save it again by leaving."
"Furthermore, I was like the man who was told that he was going to be hanged, and he said: 'I am not a hanged man, I am a man who is going to be hanged.'"

CURLEY SPENDS $300 PRACTICING HIS PREACHING

Mayor, Wanting Everybody to Help Bring Back Prosperity, Sets an Example

A practicing what he preached, Mayor Curley yesterday spent $300 in practicing his preaching, everybody in the city who could afford to do so, joined him in his practice.
The mayor, who is a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, will not say how he spent his money, but he is said to have been very successful in his practice.
"If every person who is working in America would shed the psychology of fear and start a buying movement and spend $10 for household needs or for personal needs, we would have prosperity overnight."

The heat was so bad that the official reading was 84. This is an advance of 10 degrees over yesterday's reading at the same hour.

SIGHT FRENCH PLANE OFF MASS ISLAND; DUE BY 7 P. M.

Coast guard headquarters here reported today that the station at Great Waus Island on the Maine coast at 1:55 p. m. (E. S. T.), had sighted an airplane believed to be the "Q" with Capt. Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Belhomme, French aviators, bound from Paris to New York.

The coast guards on the island, said the plane was flying west, Great Waus Island is off Bar Harbor. Comdr. Hunter of the local coast guard district said the plane was flying west, Great Waus Island is off Bar Harbor. Comdr. Hunter of the local coast guard district said the plane was flying west, Great Waus Island is off Bar Harbor.

The Radio Corp. of America station at Chatham, said at 2 p. m. (E. S. T.) today that it had been unsuccessful in attempting to communicate with Coste and Belhomme.

Attaches of the station said they had been trying for hours to get in touch with the plane and that many ships at sea likewise tried unsuccessfully.

Coste Off Maine Coast, Making 75 Miles an Hour

By the Associated Press
Plunging through skies which grew increasingly foggy, the French transatlantic plane "Q" reached the coast of Maine this afternoon and pushed on toward New York at a pace of about 75 miles an hour.
When the plane of Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Belhomme sighted near Great Waus Island on the Maine coast a few minutes before 3 o'clock (E. S. T.), it had traveled approximately 600 miles in an air line course since 6 o'clock this morning, and if this speed were maintained it would reach New York shortly after 7 tonight.

STRIKER TOWARD COAST

The 20-mile-an-hour progress toward New York did not represent the actual speed of the plane, for instead of following an air line course it had veered inward around the southern part of Nova Scotia, strikes the coast of Maine with a short over-water jump, avoiding the long patch of sea it would have had to cross if it followed a straight line from Halifax to Cape Cod, Mass.

GOVERNOR CONFERS ON AUTO INSURANCE

Gov. Frank C. Allen today held a conference with Insurance Commissioner Morton L. Brown concerning the proposed new compulsory automobile insurance rates for 1931. The rates caused a storm of protest.

His capture made no particular impression, they edged across the southern tip of Newfoundland and came first over North American territory where an intense passion of their native France the Isle of St. Pierre.

That was at 7 o'clock Boston time this morning. Their continued progress along the coast indicated that they would come to earth at Clinton Heights near Long Island. The two aeroplanes, however, went north this evening.

'SEYSGRARD FOR BEST OF WESTERN OFFICE

Quiet and unobtrusive, Roy A. Young, distinguished banker, today took up his duties as governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. The new governor had little to say regarding business and banking conditions in New England and indicated that he would not make any remarks on these matters.

In a prepared statement, Mr. Young said it was too soon to make any interesting report on business but added that his best efforts would be exerted on behalf of the people of New England both from a local and national standpoint.

When pressed for some further statement, Mr. Young admitted there was an easy and exceptionally strong credit structure in the country today.

The Federal Reserve Bank throughout the country are in excellent condition, he said. "They are all ready and willing to furnish the nation with money, returns to normal from the war."

Mr. Young, who holds his position as governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, has been in the position since 1925. He was born in Massachusetts and has been in the position since 1925.

PLAYS RASKOB'S FALL KILLS U. S. HOOPER RAP

New York, Sept. 2 (AP)—Representative John J. Hooper, chairman of the Republican Congressional committee, in a statement today after the fall of Raskob, said that the fall of Raskob was a blow to the Republican party.

The statement was in reply to Raskob's demand as chairman of the Democratic National committee that the Republican party should support his change that the Democratic committee's publicity campaign had maligned the President.

"Mr. John J. Raskob personally underwritten propaganda," Mr. Hooper has asked publicity for a bill of particulars of the misrepresentation by his agency.

A personal of only part of the misrepresentation which have been issued from Mr. Raskob's subcommittee bureau supports the charge that the business of the bureau is misrepresentation."

Trumbull to Attend Big Show With Staff

Stafford, Conn., Sept. 2 (AP)—National guard orders were issued here today ordering the staff of Gov. John H. Trumbull to Springfield, Mass., on Sept. 14 and 15 to report for duty with the Governor in attending exercises connected with the nation's exhibition.

Body of Johnny Mehl Is Taken From Lake

Toronto, Sept. 2 (AP)—The body of Johnny Mehl of Toronto, 15, drowned in Lake Ontario off Port Credit a month ago, was recovered yesterday. Mehl came here in train for the men's marathon swim at the Canadian National exhibition.

VICE CONSUL

Capt. J. J. Sept. 2 (AP)—John Randolph Robinson, 26, of New York, U. S. vice consul at Naples, died today from the effects of a fall from a window of the Hotel Quisisana, on the island of Capri.

After falling several stories to a ground pavement, Robinson was taken to a hospital suffering from bone fractures and internal injuries.

Robinson was the son of a prominent attorney living in Paris. He was born in Paris and educated in French, Italian and English schools, later attending St. Paul's school at Concord, N. H. He was graduated from Harvard in 1927.

He joined the foreign service in August, 1927. He was vice consul in Calcutta, Madras and Nice. He had been in Naples less than a year.

Health Institute Changes Its Name

Washington, Sept. 2 (AP)—Knowing a new era under the name of National Institute of Health, the old Hygienic Laboratory of the United States Public Health Service today is pushing forward its health tasks with renewed vigor.

The expanded service has accepted under a new law a $100,000 gift for basic chemical research from the Chemical Foundation, Inc.

Thinks Corporations Are Getting It All

Editor Boston American:

Would like to see your opinion, and that of the readers of this paper, on the following matter:

1.—Is the principal issue really big business, corporations having a monopoly of most of the business of the country? There are thousands having to go out of business just on account of this situation, which has been growing on for years.

And now, as we celebrate the 20th anniversary of our country, millions are on the verge of starvation, and yet the country is the richest in the world.

Isn't there a whole lot to think about in that statement? Doesn't it show that there is something very much wrong when big corporations, already with millions back of them, can come into all our small towns and villages, take the business away from all the independent merchants, and carry all the profits away to the large cities, already overpopulated? Isn't it time something was done about it?

What is to become of our children growing up today if this "big business" is allowed to continue? I have a daughter just entering high school, several employees and sons, and I would like to think that they were going to have a fair chance in this world, but I can't see how it is to be brought about unless there is a very big change in the business situation.

It stands to reason that if a few large companies are allowed to spread over our entire country

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Editor Boston Evening American:

Please have your readers attend the following questions:

1.—Is Japanese taught in the high schools of Boston or in New England? This language, I understand, is taught in high schools of New York city.

2.—The Boston papers state that Hannah Dustin or Dustin killed Indians with a knife and that she has recently been found. Did she not kill them with a tomahawk and is so represented on the monument at Haverhill, Mass.?

3.—Is San Diego, Cal., the safest city in the United States with only three accidents to 10,000 population?

Does Boston come next with five accidents to 10,000? This has been disputed.

4.—Did Heinrich Goebel of Hanover, Germany, invent the incandescent light 25 years before the Edison patent was filed?

If any one can throw light upon these questions, which a group of students are worried over, he will receive a personal letter of thanks after giving his address.

N. L. LEISTMANN.

and pile up millions of dollars, that others have got to suffer for it. They have saved the people a few dollars—but at what a cost—the future of our children as individuals with a chance to establish a business of their own.

I am familiar with the retail business in our New England states and I know this is true. I have a business for myself and I know what it means, and there are lots of us who do not want old age pensions but a chance to work and earn our money, which up to the time has been possible. Thousands of us are not making a living because of a few big corporations.

What is to become of our children growing up today if this "big business" is allowed to continue? I have a daughter just entering high school, several employees and sons, and I would like to think that they were going to have a fair chance in this world, but I can't see how it is to be brought about unless there is a very big change in the business situation.

It stands to reason that if a few large companies are allowed to spread over our entire country already? What do you think, Editor?

Says Government Rum Control Creates Drinkers

Editor Boston American:

I read a Canadian from Toronto in Boston, say a few days ago, that the Government had created a new crop of drinkers under Government control of liquor.

In the first period of Government control, when over 200,000 citizens took out permits in Toronto last year those holding permits were over 400,000. Under Government sale, accurate and drunkness in the province has increased. In Ontario, where in 1925-1926 there were 192,117, in 1928-1929 there were 192,117. This represents various forms of crime. Partial rum control has greatly multiplied. In 1925-1926 there were 275, in 1928-1929 there were 275.

Those who are holding that Government control of liquor would help America at this present time, are asked to contemplate these figures.

Mr. Hearst's Editorial Enlightening on Peace

Editor Boston American:

The editorial of Mr. Hearst in your issue of Friday, Aug. 26, made good reading for me. I enjoyed it. It made plain in my mind what I have been thinking about for some time.

I just went to lunch upon one point that pleased me greatly: "Personally I do not think there need be another war. I believe that the moral sentiment, the intelligent opinion of the world, could easily proceed along Mr. Brandt's plan of a United States of Europe and by rectifying injustices here and there, establish the United States of Europe" said Mr. Hearst.

Compare this with what was proclaimed at the Williamsonville of Peace in 1919, that the United States of Europe and by rectifying injustices here and there, establish the United States of Europe" said Mr. Hearst.

WEDDING BELLS CHIME
Today for Miss Jane Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Downing of Wyandhurst, Manchester, and Edward Leigh Gates of Elysia, O. The ceremony takes place at 3 o'clock in Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Manchester, in the presence of a large assembly of North Shore society with the Rev. F. A. W.
Trist officiating. Miss Downing, who is a lovely blonde, will be attended by Miss Marianna Rice, daughter of New York as maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be the Miss Barbara Backers of Destroit and Manchester, Miss Laura Dunne, Miss Gay Livermore, Miss
Pauline De Fries, and Miss Jay

THE USHER CORPS FOR society's first September wedding includes William Gates of Cleveland, Ohio; John Gates and Geoffrey Gates of New York; David Gates and Caspar Clark of Elgin, Ohio; Lawrence Wever, Jr., of Marlborough, Marshall Duns of Cincinnati, Ohio, and John Grew of Dover. Following the wedding, a large reception will be held at the Powning home in Manchester. The couple are to spend their honeymoon in Europe, principally in France and Italy.

THE MONTEREAT CLUB at Beverly in the scene of a pretty little fair today put on by the members of the Monterey C. H. club from 11 until 5 o'clock. The Children's hospital of Boston is to benefit. Miss Mary Bigelow was the business manager and chairman, assisted by the Misses Lily Warren, Josephine Emery, Jane Rantoul, Margaret Stockton, Anne and Elise Scottwell, Emily Park, Alice Burrage, Nancy May, and the Rev. and Mrs. Loring. The first two hours were interesting things, to sell and expect to exceed the fund made for the same cause last season.

MRS. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS has not allowed her interest in women skippers to abate since the cup bearing her name was won permanently last year by Miss Frances Williams, crew of the Cohasset Yacht Club. Today the girl skippers are competing for a new cup offered by DEBUTANTES ARE EAGER-ly winning the social horizon nowadays for announcements of the early fall presentations. One of these delightful events will be a tea which Mrs. Francis Blake is planning to give at her Weston home on Sept. 27 for her granddaughters, Miss Ruth Blake, and Ruth Blake, spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Blake, at Mattapoisett. They will return to their Weston residence shortly before the date set for the party.

Frock of Another Color Mixes Well

BY ANN ABDEL

BUT A harmony does exist, or can exist, if one chooses rightly. With fall just around the corner, and at least one substantial clothes purchase necessary, a coat of dark brown is a wise solution.

ITS ENSEMBLE range covers a wide field this season, as it is exceedingly smart to wear green or red with brown, as well as the previously accepted beige and matching tones. The plan, you can readily see, banishes the old hokey of having to "stick to one color" if one was rather more poor than rich. Other unexpected mixtures will be extremely good.

ACCESSORIES deftly disagreeing with the costume will be the order of the day when fall gets near.

THE BROWN coat pictured is of a suede finish woolen, cut on long slim lines, with self lap and brown buckle. The fur is Kolinsky; the collar, round and melon shaped across the back, the fur cleverly cut in form curves to the waistline. Deep cuffs, set on above sleeve edges, are pointed to the elbow.

BROWN SUEDE pumps, are worn beige but and pull-on gloves.

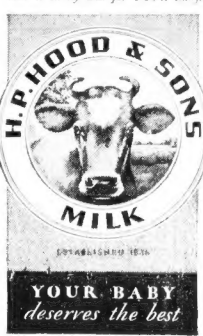

IF YOU have been wondering whether the waistline would waister at the meetings with the season, your mind will be put at rest by word from Paris openings. It seems that the waistline is placed to stay for a while at least. New frocks and coats place this important line at the normal waistline. The hip tops, Rodines are frequently bloused about the waistline, the princess silhouette is not unknown to the mode.

BEIGE IN A dark or grayed shade is the choice of many smart women for hose that are worn with dark colors. It blends nicely with the dark shades and ensembles effectively with various colors in accessories. Shades of beige are generally more popular than any other for hosiery.

ANN ARDEN will answer questions concerning clothes, social customs, or fashions generally. Address your questions to the Boston Evening American or the Boston Sunday Advertiser or to Station WHDH.

Hood's Grade A Milk is produced by the largest group of tuberculin tested cows in New England. These herds are under State and Federal supervision, and are now creating a milk supply that is surely Best for YOUR Baby.

HOOD'S modern transportation facilities have practically banished the element of distance between our farms and the cities. Milk from the finest dairies, nesting in the beautiful valleys of New England's best dairying sections, is as promptly available as that produced at or near our city lines. We encourage the production of good milk wherever dairymen are responsive to our exacting standards, by the payment of cash premiums for highest quality. We are the largest distributors of milk produced in the vicinity of the cities we serve, and in some instances the supply is exclusively local. But in these days of highly developed Hood transportation, all Hood's milk is nearly milk. The question you and we are concerned with, is highest quality. Wherever Hood quality milk is found, in our production area it is maintained for your service. All Hood's milk is nearly milk, for our farthest farms are only a few hours away.

RICH MILK—Richer than legal requirements for Grade A Milk. Rich all through.

CLEAN MILK—From clean cows, produced under rigid sanitary supervision.

TESTED COWS—From cows tuberculin tested under State and Federal supervision, and then especially selected by our own inspectors.

CLEAN BOTTLES. Bottles are scientifically cleaned and sterilized by the most modern equipment in New England.

SEALED BOTTLES. Double sealed to prevent tampering or contamination.

PASTEURIZED. With the most modern and scientifically correct methods and equipment.

ALTER BOOM ON CUP DEFENDER

Newspaper, B. T. and 2 (B). With only ten days to go before Harold A. Vanderbilt's Enterprise, representing the United States and the Thomas Lipton's Fifth Shamrock, representing the British Empire, square off in their last battle for the historic America's Cup, the two huge ships will begin to-day their final tuning up for the climax of the battle of the billows.

Both are expected to be out on Block Island Sound this evening under their racing flags. Earl's Enterprise's track team was taken off after she had finally been selected to defend the cup. A boarder carried this grotesque apparatus to the yards at Bristol, where alterations were made in it.

Despite the fact that this team served Harold Vanderbilt with amazing efficiency when he was whipping Whitehead, Vanderbilt and Westman, it did not altogether satisfy him. He is coming in for some criticism for having it altered. The feeling among the old readers here is that he should have been satisfied to let well enough alone.

A tall, well set-up young fellow was standing under the show-ers at Kelly and Hayes gymnasium the other afternoon. His otherwise good-natured boyish face with the high cheekbones de-noting a strain of Indian blood, was marred by a ragged scar. On his broad back were marks of bullet or knife, too.

"That fellow certainly is from Chicago," we told ourselves.

"Look at his scars." You know in our set, Old Deal, we don't take a chap's word, nowadays, when he says he is from Chicago. We make him prove it by com-mand-ing, "Lemme see your wounds."

But this much-wounded young man under the shower wasn't from Chicago, after all. It was from the oil fields of Okla-homa. Yeah, you're right, Babe Hunt, "The Big Gusher," who col-lides with Ernie Schaaf in promoter Eddie Mack's fistic ex-travaganza at Fenway Park to-night.

In last Saturday's column, when we were fanning on the heavyweights in general and the promising youngsters in particu-lar, we promised you we would have something to say, today, about Babe and Ernie and their chances of eventually getting a f-ger in the heavyweight cham-pionship pie heaving, Sharkey, Campolo, Carnera and Stribling are scrapping over.

It was something of a rash promise. If you never have seen a boxer in action you're not very well qualified to pass upon his good and bad points. We like to look over a youngster in real com-bat before labelling him. The only time we ever saw young Hunt was when he stood there grinning under the showers.

But Babe must have consid-er-able fistic goods.

TO GIVE AND TAKE

The foundation of a boxer is ability to give and take. Otherwise he would not have been able to dump young Mr. Stribling on his, eh, well let's call it center of equilibrium. Georgian is rather a hard knock off his pins. Ernie Carnera and Hunt we re-collect any of the lads who Willie out of his bro-yes, any youngster who ek Stribling off his feet must be a healthy, man-sized

There weren't any casual-ties," answered Jack. "Babe linked a hit to get the col-els out of his eyes, spread his legs to get a brace, stead-ed himself and came back in a magnificent rally."

We began to get the idea then that Babe Hunt must of the right fistic stuff. We re-argued America's best

"Kops" answered Jack. "I'd gool around much with

"Never saw him in night clubs, dance halls or cabarets," replied Jack.

St. Louis, Sept. 2 (US)—Wes Ferrell's 24th victory of the season was the outstanding event in the Indians' team victory over the Browns, 12 to 5 and 9 to 4.

A terrific bombardment in the fourth and fifth innings gave the pitcher in the Indians.

A continuation of their batting attack and Ferrell's fine hurling won the nightcap.

The Indians collected 18 hits in the first nine and 17 in the second, which was called on account of darkness in the eighth inning.

Porter and Hodapp hit homers.

"This young Irish-Indian from Oklahoma is a rather nessed up young person," we remarked. "He has scars enough to make Al Capone jealous. Must have been in plenty of knivings and shoot-

"Oh, no, don't get that opinion, George," replied the boxing expert. "They tell me Babe got all those scars in one miking. He was on his way home in an automobile in Oklahoma one night when his car collided with another. Babe got out to see how much damage had been done and be-fore he knew it a couple of fellows jumped him from be-hind and started carrying and shooting him up."

ARMY GRIDMEN START WORK

West Point, Sept. 2 (AP)—With its cadets after places on the vari-ety and picnic teams. Army football practice will start this after-noon in preparation for the opening game on September 25 with Eastern University, Maj. P. H. Elmore, graduate manager of athletics at the United States Military Academy, said today.

This is the maximum number of cadets authorized by regulation.

Eighty-eight of the candidates are upperclassmen and for the variety team, while the remainder are con-ditioners for the picnic team.

Maj. Edgar J. Sauer, new head coach, will have seven members of last year's first team report, but will have the problem of develop-ing an entire new backfield. Among the regulars from the 1938 team are: Center and Messenger, ends;

Hummer and Hildinger, guards; Miller, center; Price, tackle, and Carver, quarterback.

Other cadets who were in enough games to win their letters and who will report are Malloy and Fletcher, ends; Bowman, quarterback; Sauer and Price, guards; Lamm, center, and Claffity, a tackle.

PORT OF BOSTON IN REVIEW

By CARL MORRISON

The selection of the day in the port of Boston is a busy one. The harbor is filled with ships of all kinds, from the small fishing boats to the large ocean liners. The port is a vital link between the city and the world.

TWO BOSTON SAILINGS

The two Boston sailings are the Maritime and the Atlantic. The Maritime is a small ship that sails to the coast, while the Atlantic is a large ship that sails to Europe.

BOSTONIANS AFLOAT

The Bostons are a group of people who live in Boston and travel around the world. They are known for their love of travel and their knowledge of the world.

TODAY'S WHO'S WHO

FINAL SAILING

The final sailing of the Maritime is a sad event for many people. The ship has been a part of the port for many years.

ATLANTIC WHARVES

The Atlantic wharves are a busy part of the port. They are where the ships load and unload their cargo.

Fishing Schooner Back for Repairs

The fishing schooner Back is back in the port for repairs. It has been away for a long time.

Breaks Arm in Fall

A man broke his arm in a fall. He was walking down the street when he fell.

As a result of the above, the authors have proposed a new method for the determination of the concentration of the Pb^{2+} ion in the presence of Cu^{2+} and Zn^{2+} ions. The method is based on the formation of a complex of Pb^{2+} with $\text{P}_2\text{O}_7^{4-}$ ions in the presence of $\text{P}_2\text{O}_7^{4-}$ ions. The complex is then determined by the method of standard addition. The results of the determination of Pb^{2+} concentration in the presence of Cu^{2+} and Zn^{2+} ions are given in Table I.

PIVOTAL LEADERS ARE PUT UP IN WALL STREET

New York, Sept. 2.—Pivotal leaders were put up in Wall Street today as the market moved higher after the close of the previous session. The market was characterized by a steady upward movement, with the leading stocks showing significant gains. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 238.46, up from 237.14 the previous day. The market was supported by a strong volume of trading, with many new issues being well received. The overall sentiment was optimistic, reflecting the recent success of the market and the expectation of continued growth.

TICKERS WORK FASTER
The new speed tickers installed on the high-speed ticker system, and the advance appears to be a slight one, but it is a step in the right direction. The market is showing a steady upward movement, with the leading stocks showing significant gains. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 238.46, up from 237.14 the previous day. The market was supported by a strong volume of trading, with many new issues being well received. The overall sentiment was optimistic, reflecting the recent success of the market and the expectation of continued growth.

HARVARD VIEW GIVEN
The Harvard Business School has given a view of the market, stating that the current upward movement is a result of the recent success of the market and the expectation of continued growth. The school's analysis suggests that the market is in a strong position to continue its upward movement, with many new issues being well received. The overall sentiment is optimistic, reflecting the recent success of the market and the expectation of continued growth.

August Orders to Republic Larger
New York, Sept. 2 (AP).—August orders to the Republic of China were larger than in any previous month, according to a report from the Chinese government. The report states that the total value of orders for August was $1,000,000, compared with $800,000 for July. This increase is attributed to the recent success of the market and the expectation of continued growth. The overall sentiment is optimistic, reflecting the recent success of the market and the expectation of continued growth.

Foreign Exchanges
The following table shows the closing rates for foreign currencies as of September 2, 1930. The rates are given in U.S. dollars per unit of the foreign currency. The market is showing a steady upward movement, with the leading stocks showing significant gains. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 238.46, up from 237.14 the previous day. The market was supported by a strong volume of trading, with many new issues being well received. The overall sentiment was optimistic, reflecting the recent success of the market and the expectation of continued growth.

ADVICE TO INVESTORS IS FREE
If you are a new investor, you will find it helpful to read the following advice to investors. It is free of charge and is intended to help you make the most of your investment. The advice is based on the experience of many successful investors and is intended to be a guide, not a guarantee. It is important to remember that investing in the stock market is a long-term endeavor and requires a certain amount of risk. However, if you follow the advice, you can increase your chances of success. The advice is as follows: 1. Do your homework. Before you invest, you should do some research on the company and the market. 2. Diversify your portfolio. Don't put all your eggs in one basket. 3. Don't panic. The market will go up and down, but if you hold on, you will likely see a return on your investment. 4. Be patient. Investing is a long-term game. 5. Consult a professional. If you are unsure, consult a financial advisor. The advice is free of charge and is intended to help you make the most of your investment. THE BIRD THAT GAVE THE HAWK FAMILY A BAD NAME.

COOPER'S HAWK

TO MOST PEOPLE, ALL HAWKS ARE "CHICKEN HAWKS" — YET NOT ONE OF THE MANY VARIETIES REALLY BEARS THAT NAME, AND FEW OF THEM HABITUALLY PREY ON POULTRY — THE COOPER IS OUR BEST KNOWN KILLER OF BENEFICIAL BIRDS AND POULTRY — HE IS EXTREMELY SWIFT ON THE WING AND CAN FOLLOW A SMALL BIRD THROUGH HEAVY FOLIAGE AT AN UNBELIEVABLE SPEED, AND FOR THIS REASON IS KNOWN IN SOME SECTIONS AS THE "BULLET HAWK"

Lucky Girl

Chauffeur, was part of Cathie's world. She no longer minded the work, and wondered if he was listening to what they were saying in the luxuriously upholstered coach.

But Mr. Farnsworth was beginning to get restless. Telegrams and long distance calls from the office, infrequent at first, were coming now. He called Miss Farnsworth on the telephone on some every day, and spent an hour or longer with the hotel chambermaid. Watching the girl take dictation made Cathie feel vaguely uncomfortable. It reminded her that a little while ago she was the stenographer, who was now a rich man's wife.

Finally, I'm afraid we must get back," he said at last.
Cathie smiled, and nodded. She had known it was coming. It was silly to mind.

A Chinese boy in a white coat opened the door. Cathie was conscious of thick carpets, of dark green hangings, of costly furniture, but there was no welcome in it. It was like coming into a place that had been vacated a long time.

Farnsworth took her arm, and guided her into an immense living room on the left of the hotel. He found himself stepping cautiously, afraid of making a noise, it was so large, so silent.

A fire was burning, but the air was cold and rather close. Cathie would have liked to throw open the windows and stir up the air, but she was too shy. She pulled off her gloves, standing silently in the center of the room.

Mr. Farnsworth walked around, noticed at a certain glance the room, and then he turned to Cathie, smiling slightly through a pile of new napkins on the table.

"You might pour tea, dear," he said absently.
She looked around nervously, looked at the teapot and saw that the water was cold and saw that the sugar was in a tin, and then she turned to the teapot and saw that the water was cold and saw that the sugar was in a tin.

She was pouring the tea, feeling awkward and strange. Farnsworth came up and stepped himself to a window. By the time she had finished, he was back.

THE BIRD THAT GAVE THE HAWK A FEW OF ITS NAME.

COOPER'S HAWK

THE MOST PEOPLE call hawks are "chicken hawks"—yet not one of the many varieties really bears that name, and few of them habitually prey on poultry—the Cooper is our best known killer of beneficial birds and poultry—he is extremely swift on the wing and can follow a small bird through heavy foliage at an unbelievable speed, and for this reason is known in some sections as the "bullet hawk."
